

From: John P. Mundt
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/6/01 2:20pm
Subject: Anti-trust settlement

Very briefly, we are a Macintosh school district under ever-increasing pressure to change to the WinTel machines used in the "real world." The anti-trust settlement, where WinTel machines appear in schools only exacerbates the pressure since it increases their market share, fosters the use of their software, and makes their monopoly even better. Why not force them to pay for and place Macintosh or Linux machines in the schools?

John

^ "You can lead a boy to college, but you cannot make him think."
^*^ -Elbert Hubbard

-----^O^*^-----
/*^^^ John P. Mundt Assoc. Dir., Computer Services
^O^^*^^ Adlai E. Stevenson High School 847.634.4000x1217
^^^^^ One Stevenson Drive FAX 847.634.7309
^O^^*/^O^ Lincolnshire, IL 60091 jmundt@district125.k12.il.us
||